

2008 NATIONAL SCHOOL CONFERENCE
ON INTERNATIONAL YOUTH EXCHANGE
Indianapolis, Indiana ★ February 28-29, 2008

Co-sponsored by the Council on Standards for International Educational Travel (CSIET)
and the Indiana Department of Education (IDOE)

The 1st Annual National School Conference on International Youth Exchange will provide a unique opportunity for school leaders, educators and administrators to meet and network with school colleagues and leaders of various youth exchange programs. CSIET and the Indiana Department of Education have come together to sponsor this first of its kind conference to provide a forum on a wide range of topics related to international youth exchange.

The conference will include informative sessions such as Best Practices for Youth Exchange, Legal Issues Relating to Visas and Regulations, Why Businesses Want Globally Experienced Graduates, Impact of Study Abroad on College Admissions, No Child Left Behind Issues Relating to Youth Exchange, School-to-School Exchange Opportunities, English Language Proficiency and other topics.

Who Should Attend This Conference ?

International Education and Exchange Advocates, School administrators and educators, including principals and assistant principals, guidance counselors, and foreign language and social studies teachers, are invited to learn, share, and discuss about topics related to international youth exchange.

Why Should You Participate ?
